Ayer's Hair Vigor

You know the story—how good Queen Bee, pointing to the beautiful hair of a peasant girl, said, "There's a real royal crown. I would trade my golden one for it." That was long ago. Now you can have a "real royal crown" of your own, simply by using Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the hair grow thick and long and stops it falling out.

When your hair is rich and heavy, and when the closest inspection fails to detect a single gray hair, you will certainly look a great deal younger, and you will be much better satisfied with yourself, too. Isn't that so?

GROCER'S NOTICE.

In accordance with our desire to give our customers the best possible service at the lowest prices, we have decided to discontinue the practice of allowing a discount of 5 per cent on retail monthly bills, and therefore give notice that on and after the 1st of November, 1904, no discount whatsoever will be allowed on any groceries sold in our stores. All groceries will be sold at net prices, on a basis of spot cash or thirty days' settlement, and there will be no exception made to this rule. Purchases made in our retail department up to the 1st of November will, of course, be subject to the 5 per cent discount as heretofore.

The discount question has frequently been the cause of disputes and dissatisfaction and we believe this arrangement will improve our relations with our patrons, while it will at the same time enable us to more adequately meet the keen competition prevailing in our line of business, and to give our customers the benefit of the lowest prices.

ONE DEFEATED REPUBLICAN

GOVERNOR PEABODY OF COLORADO.

Governor Peabody of Colorado has been defeated for re-election. Peabody is a Republican, and his state was carried for Roosevelt by 10,000, but the fight of the Western Federation of Miners against Peabody, who has been deporting union men from Colorado, was successful.

PARKER'S CHARGE OF BLACKMAIL

THE ACCUSATIONS WHICH MADE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT ISSUE A DENIAL DURING THE CAMPAIGN—PARKER MAKES VERY SERIOUS CHARGES DURING AN ADDRESS DELIVERED IN NEW YORK OCTOBER 31.

A New York cable several days ago stated that President Roosevelt had issued a statement denying charges made by Judge Parker regarding the collection of funds from corporations, for the Republican National Committee. Roosevelt called it a charge of blackmail and declared Parker's statements false. The following extract from Parker's New York speech of October 31 shows the nature of the charges:

"In an early utterance I have referred in detail to what is notoriously going on in the matter of collection of funds by the Republican party for the campaign. Now I know, as you know, that money is required in order to defray the expenses of a campaign. Under right conditions its collection and expenditure are equally legitimate. But the spectacle of demanding campaign funds now presented to this country is, when rightly regarded, of a character to shock the moral sense. We shall do well to pause for a moment to ask whether we are drifting in our indifference to right standards and to our old-fashioned sense of propriety in such matters.

"Congress created a new Department of Commerce and Labor. Of that department the President of the United States appoints a Secretary. That Secretary was his private secretary. Within that department provision is made for the collection from large corporations, including the so-called trusts, of information, which, it is to be borne in mind, is to be submitted to the President for public or private use, as he may direct. By grace of the same Executive this Secretary, through whose department this information is collected, becomes the chairman of the Republican National Committee. His chief duty has been and still is to collect funds for the purpose of securing the election of the President. And it is now notorious that there has resulted from this organized impurity—whatever may be the precise way in which it is made effective—an overflowing treasury to the committee, of which boast is openly and continually made.

"Although this may be satisfactory to the conscience of Republican leaders, it must, I firmly believe, be condemned as nothing short of scandalous, not only by myself and the Democratic party, but by the American people as well.

"It is said by Mr. Hay that the character of Mr. Lincoln furnishes the standard for Mr. Roosevelt in his conduct as President. I do not have to pause to hear your thundering 'No' when I ask, Would Lincoln have done or permitted this to be done?

"The whole performance is a shameless exhibition of a willingness to make compromise with decency in order that sums of money may be gathered together sufficiently vast to justify the insolent boast even now that there is no question as to the success which by such a course the Republican managers confidently predict. The performance is entitled to the credit that it is in no sense partakes of hypocrisy. It is bold as it is improper and indefensible."

FOREST RESERVE ESTABLISHED

NO PROTESTS RECEIVED AGAINST KOOLAULOA RESERVE AS ORIGINALLY PLANNED.

There being no opposition entered to the proposal to form a forest reserve at Kaipapau, Koolaupua district, Oahu at yesterday's meeting called for the purpose of hearing objections if there were any, the reserve has been ordered and the legal machinery for the setting aside of the property as a public domain was put in motion.

"The report of the meeting as published this morning was considerably off," remarked Governor Carter today. "It was not a public meeting for the purpose of considering the matter of the reservation but it was for the purpose of giving opportunity for those who objected to the formation of the reservation making themselves heard. The fact that there were no persons present to urge objections was the best endorsement that the policy of the department could have. The papers are now in process of preparation and the reserve is practically an accomplished fact."

A GOOD TACKLE.

W. W. Heferfinger, formerly a Yale football player, was driving along Hennepin avenue, Minneapolis, the other morning when he heard a runaway horse approaching. The frightened animal was attached to a buggy in which sat a screaming woman. "Pudge," as his friends call him, jumped from his own conveyance, handed the reins to a passer-by and waited for the runaway. As the animal lunged past the football player made a splendid tackle, securing a hold on the throat-latch, and brought the horse to a standstill inside half a block. Then he drove away, quietly remarking, "That's the first time anything gained so much ground after I tackled it."

France has got to increase the number of her naval officers to meet the growth of her fleet. In 1903, when the present naval program is concluded, she will have 28 battleships, 25 battle cruisers, six first class, 15 second class and thirteen third-class cruisers, a big torpedo boat flotilla and 60 submarines.
